March 2013 Newsletter

New Board Member

The Deferred Compensation Board welcomes its newest member Joe Link, PBA representative to the Board. Joe replaced Mike Applequist on January 1st. Joe served in the US Navy for 6 years and became a Suffolk County Police Officer in 1992. He was elected to the PBA Board in 2005 as the 3rd Precinct Trustee. Joe was recently elected to the position of PBA Financial Secretary. We look forward to working with Joe!

We thank Mike Applequist for his dedication to the Plan and especially for his contributions to the Documents Committee where he served as Chair!

Plan's Website – Sporting a New Look and Feel!

We are pleased to announce that the Plan's website will be going mobile! The website will be enhanced to recognize different devices and will automatically scale to the screen size of smart phone and tablets. This will allow mobile users to access all features of the website with ease. In addition, T. Rowe Price and VALIC have smart phone applications. Please check their respective websites for further details.

Fee Disclosure has been added to the website's homepage. We encourage you to take a look at these documents where you will find important facts on fund performance, expense ratios, redemption fees and other pertinent information concerning your deferred compensation plan. Although the Board is not mandated to provide detailed fee disclosure, the Board has taken the position that it is in everyone's best interest to provide this information so participants can make informed decisions!

Plan Changes

The Board has negotiated with both providers to add T. Rowe Price funds to the VALIC line-up. This will make it easier for VALIC participants to invest in T. Rowe Price funds without having to move money to T. Rowe Price. A letter with the details will be sent to all plan participants in the next few weeks.

Effective July 1, 2013, the T. Rowe Price Stable Value Fund will be closed to the Suffolk County Deferred Compensation Plan and all assets in that fund will be automatically transferred to the Stable Interest Cash Account. A letter was sent to all participants on March 1, 2013 announcing this change.
